Willing to see

Wondering how Wondering when People could learn to be better again
I guess it would be
If we'd only see Wonderful things that happen every day

Kids with a laugh on their face Lovers in a romance
Full of joy, just to live Taking a chance Willing to give without demands

Wondering what Wondering who made us believe that life isn't enough Why fighting a war
and still ignore (that) Peace can only be if you're willing to see
